

Home of Unusual Beauty.

Over on Third avenue north at Park drive will be found one of the most ornate homes in the city in the residence which about a year ago Dr. Francis J. Adams completed. Offering, as it does, a very handsome exterior, one is prepared to find a splendid interior and in that the Adams' home is not disappointing. Modern in every detail and elegantly finished, it offers Dr. and Mrs. Adams a delightful home in which to dispense their well known hospitality for which, in their long residence here and their activity in the social life of the city, they have become well known and popular.

Great Falls includes in its long
